

VERNER BICKLEY is co-founder (with his wife, Gillian Bickley) of both the publishing house, Proverse Hong Kong, and the international Proverse Prize for an unpublished work of fiction, non-fiction, or poetry. He has lived in Asia for most of his life. A writer, speaker, broadcaster and actor, he is currently an Honorary Research Fellow at the University of Hong Kong and Chairman of the English-Speaking Union in Hong Kong. His most recent book, Footfalls Echo in the Memory: A Life with the Colonial Education Service and the British Council in Asia (2010), is a personal account of his life while an Education Officer in British Colonial Service in Singapore and as British Council officer in Burma, Indonesia and Japan.